

Rate Yourself as to
Your WORKING CHARACTERISTICS

Make a dot in the appropriate space after each question. Be absolutely honest but be fair to yourself.

How Do You Think You Rate?	High	Above Average	Average	Below Average	Low
As a self-starter who doesn't have to be pushed or prodded?
As a finisher of things you start?
As a person who can work with little supervision?
In ability to get along with others?
In ability to work under pressure?
In ability to concentrate on a job?
In the efficient use of your time?
In the accuracy of your work?
In the neatness of your work?
In the speed with which you work?
In the finishing your work at the time expected or promised?
In willingness to tackle unpleasant or difficult assignments?
In mastery of detail?
In ability to organize your work?
In willingness to do more than your share when occasion calls for it?
In resourcefulness in meeting difficult problems?
In willingness to assume responsibility?
In learning from mistakes and not repeating them?
In stick-to-it-iveness in the face of trials and setbacks?
Doing every job the best you can possibly do?

This profile of how your associates and those over you see you. These are some of the traits that you will be judged by when you are being considered for promotion.